

The ministry of environment of the Xunta de Galicia, has the purpose and duty to look after a sustainability woodland management will carried on, and naturally he understand, that the forest certification, together with an arrangement, an efficient tool for the performance is.

Out of that he participate in the Spanish Association for the forest certification, who manage the PEFC Certification System, and in the Committees of elaboration of the norms UNE for the forest managing, based in the views and the overall European indicators of the sustainable woodland management.

Herewith certifies the State Minister of environment:

That the kind E globulus (globulus from Galizien) had a positive evolution in volume of the stocks, like the third national forest inventory, and that the balance between the forestry and the possibility of felling, guarantee the sustainability of the type.

Issue the following certificate, in Santiago de Compostela the twenty-five of October of two thousand and one.